The Last Will & Testament of Hannah Van Valkenburgh

Proved and recorded April 15. 1852 as a will relating to both real & personal estate. "The last will and testament of Hannah Van Valkenburgh the widow of the late Francis Van Valkenburgh deceased. I Hannah Van Valkenburgh of the town of Guilderland in the county of Albany, considering the uncertainty of this natural and mortal life, & being of sound mind and memory thanks to Almighty God therefore, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, That is to say. First. I give and devise to my two daughters Edith Van Valkenburgh and Hannah Margaret Van Valkenburgh to them and unto their heirs and assigns forever, all that certain lot piece or parcel of land with the buildings & appurtenances thereunto belonging situate in the town of Guilderland before mentioned, lying and being on the north side of the western turnpike road leading from the city of Albany to Cherry valley, between six and eight miles from the said city of Albany, & being a part of the lot, piece or parcel of land which was devised or given to me by my honored Father John Lathange estimated to contain five acres, be the same more or less subject to the conditions and provisions hereinafter contained. I will & order that in case Edith dies before my said daughter Hannah Margaret without heirs of her body, then I order that her half of the said five acres go to my heirs as hereinafter mentioned shall and share alike. If Hannah Margaret dies previous to Edith or marries then she the said Edith is to take, hold, possess and enjoy the whole of the said five acres with the appurtenances thereunto belonging to her and her heirs forever. And all the rest, residue and remainder of real estate Goods and chattels of that kind and nature soever, I give and bequeath unto my five daughters equally to be divided between them share & share alike, namely Ann Maria Shell the wife of Philip Shell, Catharine Jane Van Valkenburgh, Edith Van Valkenburgh, Eliza McKown the wife of James McKown and Hannah Margaret Van Valkenburgh & lastly, I hereby appoint my brother Abraham Lansing my sole Executor of this my last will and testament. I hereby revoke all former wills by me made. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this twenty second day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred & forty five. Signed sealed published and declared by the above named Hannah Van Valkenburgh to be her last will and testament in the presence of us who at her request and in her presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto. "Life" in third line stricken out "Five" in fifteenth line and "Four" in eighteenth line written over erasures before execution also in fourteenth line the words "or mainten" interlined before execution.
