Wendell H. Bender I also saw said George W. Taylor and Wendell H. Bender the other subscribing witnesses sign their names as witnesses at the end of said will, and know that they did so at the request of said decedent and in his presence. The said decedent, at the time of so executing said instrument, was upwards of the age of twenty one years, and of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, or in any respect incompetent to devise real estate. And further this deponent says that the witness Wendell H. Bender is now dead

The Last Will and Testament of James F. McKown
Proved and recorded January 25th 1893, as will of real and personal estate.

In the Name of God, Amen, I, James F. McKown of the City and County of Albany being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this life, do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare, this to be my Last Will and Testament: That is to say,

First, After all my lawful debts are paid and discharged, I give and bequeath the income of all my real and personal estate that I now possess or may inherit to my wife, Kate McKown so long as she remains my widow so long. In Case of her second marriage I give and bequeath all my personal estate, And two thirds of my real estate that I now possess or may inherit to my son William J. McKown and he shall have immediate possession of the same. I give all uncollected accounts due me for professional services to my wife Kate McKown forever

Likewise I make, Constitute and appoint my Wife Kate McKown executrix and my son William J. McKown to be Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made,

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and affixed my seal, the 15th day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety one.

Witnesses

James F. McKown (L. S.)

The above instrument, consisting of one sheet, was at the thereof subscribed by James F. McKown the Testator named in the foregoing Will, in the presence of us, and each of us, and at the time of making such subscription the above instrument was declared by the said Testator to be his Last Will and Testament, and each of us, at the request of said Testator and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, sign our names as witnesses thereto, at the end of the Will.

Ella V. McKown of the City of Albany in the County of Albany and Annie J. McKown of the City of Albany in the County of Albany being first duly sworn in Open Court, do depose and say, and each for herself deposeth and saith that she is a subscribing witness to the instrument now shown to her, purporting to be the last will and testament of James F. McKown of the City of Albany in the County of Albany. That the said James F. McKown did in the presence of this deponent subscribe his name at the end of the instrument which is now shown and exhibited to this deponent as aforesaid, and which purports to be the last will and testament of the said James F. McKown and which bears date on the 15th day of June in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one And this this deponent further saith that the said James F. McKown the said testator did, at the same time of subscribing his name as aforesaid at the end of the said will, declare the said instrument so subscribed, and now exhibited, to be his last will and testament; and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of the said will, as an attesting witness thereto, in the presence of, and at the request of the said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent subscribing her name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said James F. McKown was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

George H. Waggoner of the City of Albany in the County of Albany being duly sworn as a witness in the above entitled matter, and examined on behalf of the proponent to prove said will, says:

I was well acquainted with James F. McKown the testator, and had known him for more than ten years before his death. The subscription of the decedents name to the instrument now shown to me, and offered for probate as his last will and testament, and bearing date the 15th day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one was made by the decedent at 335 Hamilton Street, in the City of Albany in the County of Albany in the presence of myself and Ella V. McKown & Annie J. McKown the other subscribing witness. At the time of such subscription the said decedent declared the said instrument, so subscribed by him, to be his last will and testament and I thereupon signed my name as a witness at the end of the said instrument, at the request of said decedent, and in his presence, and in the presence of said Ella V. McKown & Annie J. McKown I also saw said Ella V. McKown & Annie J. McKown the other subscribing witness, sign their names as witnesses at the end of said will, and know that they did so at the request of said decedent and in his presence. The said decedent, at the time of so executing said instrument was upwards of the age of twenty-one years, and of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint, or in any respect incompetent to devise real estate. And further this deponent says not
