THIS INDENTURE Made this Twenty ninth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety BETWEEN John Cook, Referee in the action hereafter mentioned of the first part, and Electa Watson of Blandford, Massachusetts, of the second part. WHEREAS at a Special Term of the Supreme Court of the State of New York held at the City of Albany on the Thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and ninety it was among other things, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the said Court, in a certain action then pending in the said Court between Electa W. Watson, plaintiff, and Caroline H. Evans and John Cranney, defendants; that wit and singular the premises described in a mortgage executed by Rebecca T. Flynn and Patrick J. Flynn her husband to Electa W. Watson and recorded in the Albany County Clerk's office in Liber 270 at page 176 and being the same premises mentioned in the complaint in said action, and in said judgment described, or so much thereof as might be sufficient to raise the amount due to the plaintiff for principal, interest, and costs in said action, and which might be sold separately without material injury to the parties interested, be sold at public auction according to the course and practice of said Court, by or under the direction of the said John T. Cook, who was appointed a Referee in said action, and to whom it was referred by the said order and judgment of the said Court, among other things to make such sale; that the said sale be made in the County where the said mortgage premises or the greater part thereof are situated, that the said Referee
