

McKownville Improvement Association

Guiderland, New York 12203

On Wednesday December 12, 2001 from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm a public meeting of the McKownville Improvement Association at the Holiday Inn Express on Western Avenue is to be held. All residents are invited.

Mr. Ken Runion, Supervisor of the Town of Guiderland is our guest speaker. Mr. Runion will discuss the future of McKownville, Guiderland and the master plan.

Two items from the previous meeting, the proposed new strip mall on Western near the Best Western Motel, and the RFP and its suggestion to shift the center line of Western Avenue to the south, will be discussed again.

A planning committee need be formed to work on implementation of the master plan in McKownville. To aid the work of the planning committee a public discussion on problems and suggested changes in McKownville will be a major effort of the evening.
