PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD –

Doug Smith – McKown Road, thanked the Board members and the Town in general for being involved with the placement of sidewalks in the area and asked that they keep the momentum going. He would like to see sidewalks on the north side of Western Avenue. He further stated, "I am very distressed by what I am seeing here. I feel that... and I have to direct this to Mr. Grimm and Mr. Redlich, you're wasting the taxpayers money and I really want you to stop doing that".

Don Reeb – Norwood Street and President of the McKownville Neighborhood Improvement Association, thanked Town Board members and Todd Gifford, Superintendent of Highways, for having done a "yeoman's" work with making the Town a better place to live. He further stated that the people in McKownville really appreciate it.
