

*Agenda
at meeting 2008*

October 23 2008 meeting

Kathy Burbank---the Chamber of Commerce Executive Director; the Chamber will be awarded the Joseph A Bosco award by the Community Caregivers on November 7, 2008 at the Albany Country Club at 7pm. Joe Bosco, for whom the award is named, was a well regarded faculty member in the School of Education at the University at Albany for many years.

1. Death of Richard Bailey, senior, SUNY student, murdered at South Lake and Madison on Monday October 20, 2008
2. Mugging at Stuyvesant on Saturday October 18, 2008
3. Trees are due in on October 28 of thereabouts---need volunteers to help plant the five trees
4. Strassburg---new sewer line
5. Kate Lawson
6. Hole in Western Avenue---Amanda Vennard, Joe Galu
7. SUNY open house on Saturday October 25, all day with fireworks and 4pm football, farmer's market, Nanotech tour and much more
8. Guilderland sponsored bus trip to NYC---456-3150---Sunday Dec 7--$38---7am-10pm
9. Stolen political signs
10. Voting November 4
11. Creo
12. Thruway
13. Signs and parking---Captain Cox will be looking at data and we will discuss the concern further
14. Speed limits---being reexamined again
15. Harriman stakeholder meeting with Sue, Ellen and Alice---report due on November 19 from the evaluation committee on the two proposals for the development of the Harriman campus
16. Storm surveys will be reported on soon---the Association will be tabulating the surveys, writing a preliminary report which will be submitted to Mr. Runion

17. Re-examine the By-laws of the Association—to rethink the bylaws in light of the much larger number of persons living in McKownville than when the bylaws were last revised some 70 years ago.
18. Halloween party
19. November 13 general meeting
20. Mary Lou's adopt a family program
21. Waste basket—McKown Road
22. Meetings in March, April and May