

Agenda—September 23, 2009

Ken Johnson, Delaware Engineering---452-1290

Doug Smith—storm water survey—Alice Torda

University meeting on proposed new dormitory behind Eckerd's

Shabbos house has moved to its new home on Fuller

Palm reader house has been sold to Henry Klein, owner of Sutters

McKownville Park at Stuyvesant is being worked on

Pedestrian lights at McKown and Parkwood were installed

Barber's farm stand open on MWF from noon till 5:30 pm

Newly constructed house sold on Westlyn Place

Newly constructed house at the end of Mercer is about completed

Car detailing shop closed at Germano's

StateDOT has not approved speed limit changes on Western Avenue at this time—thank you--- Patty Slavick and Capt. Cox

Patti Slavick and Capt Cox and parking on Parkwood, Glenwood and Norwood—nothing new

Roger Stone –dirt pile removed at 1240 Western, problems with 1415, 1427 and 1451 Western

Todd Gifford repaired holes in asphalt in Glenwood alley

Trees---Sue Brown, Ellen Manning, Sue Gutbezahl, Ricardo Lopez Torrijos and Laura Whalen

Harriman campus announced a new Agricultural research building at its eastern end

The State approved the expansion of the City dump one more time

The proposed hotel on the Crossgates site is being argued at this time

Zoning law revisions are being studied—under the leadership of Bruce Sherwin, McKownville resident of Elmwood Street—meetings on September 22 at Town Hall and at Chamber offices at 8am on Sept 24 and 25

Fire prevention event—October 5—fire house—5:30

Fuller Road reconstruction will begin in earnest in April 2010

Thruway sound barriers will be put in place during the reconstruction of the Thruway which is going on now

Next meeting October 22

Halloween party at the fire house on Saturday October 31

November meeting November 19