MCKOWNVILLE
ALBANY 3, NEW YORK

January 5, 1967

TO RESIDENTS OF MCKOWNVILLE:

Whereas, in the death of Mr. J. Francis Purdy, the community of McKownville has lost a good neighbor and one of its foremost citizens. Mr. Purdy served this community with distinction for more than twenty-five years. By his vision, his wide experience and sound judgment, he guided the project to improve the McKownville Water System. All McKownville residents are grateful to Mr. Purdy for the unselfish and devoted effort that made possible this great achievement.

Mr. Purdy will also be remembered for the friendly and personal qualities which gained for him the affection and admiration of all who knew him.

Resolved, that each Director of the McKownville Improvement Association desires to express personally his deep regret in the passing of a valued friend who will be missed greatly, and Resolved Further, that the Secretary be instructed to deliver a copy of the minutes of this meeting to Mrs. J. Francis Purdy and to Mr. John F. Purdy, his son, as an expression of the Directors' sympathy in their great loss.
