Dear Mr. Prytherch:

Thank you for your letter of July 18th, together with enclosed correspondence relating to the postal needs of McKownville.

In this connection, I have been in touch with the Post Office Department here in Washington, expressing my interest in this situation and asking that every consideration be afforded the community of McKownville.

When I have further information to report, I will communicate with you again. In the meantime, I appreciate having the opportunity to be of whatever service I can.

With every good wish, I remain,

Sincerely,

Daniel E. Button, M. C.
