

Guilderland Demo hits GOP on mall

GUILDERLAND — The Republican Party of Guilderland has a clear commitment to the interests of the builders of the Crossgates Mall, charges Donald Berger, Democratic candidate for town supervisor.

“What the Republicans are really saying is that they gave Crossgates the zoning it needed to go ahead and then proceed to rub the people’s noses in it by saying there’s no way the people can change it, all this despite almost unanimous public opposition to Crossgates.”

Berger charged that the Republican Party of Guilderland accepted donations from the Crossgates developers. “The Republican commitment to Crossgates is seen not only in their zoning actions, but right in their own Republican Town Committee Dinner Dance program published in September of 1978. Remember this is just one month after the Republican Town

AN 11/1/79