

Crossgates partner quitting company

Robert Sproul, managing partner in the Crossgates shopping center project, is leaving that company to begin his own development firm.

He will be replaced by Bruce Kenan, a partner in the Pyramid Companies, parent company for Pyramid Crossgates, which wants to build the $85 million shopping complex in the Pine Bush area of Guilderland.

Kenan, 40, has been with the Pyramid Companies since 1970 and has been involved in mall projects in Ithaca, Glens Falls and Hadley, Mass.

*KN
1/14/79*